Information about Google Classroom from Mrs. White

Parents, if you and your children are accessing the same device for Google Classroom, make sure to log out of Google Classroom before logging in a new user. To make sure you have the right person logged in, check in the right-hand corner of Google Classroom and make sure you see your child's picture if they added a picture or their first initial. Did you know if you have an Xbox or Playstation, your child can access Google Classroom with the following instructions <https://bit.ly/2JGqLXJ>. By accessing this link, your child can use the controller or hook up a keyboard to type.

We want to hear how you are doing

Times are challenging for our teachers, students and parents to adjust to our new routines. We would love to hear how everyone is doing. Please contact Mr. Erickson or Mrs. Knaffla with

- Any ideas?
- Any additional support needed?
- Or share helpful ways your family is adjusting- like schedules, daily routines or activities.

Keep the Spirit!

Thank you to Mrs. Rohde for our school's message. We Are SFDS STRONG!

Power in Prayer and Send a Smile Thursdays- Saying a prayer can be done at anytime, but every Thursday try to say an extra prayer for wellness at 10:00am. Send a Smile by calling a relative, helping your parents, cleaning your room or house, or make something to cheer someone up in your household.
